Resolution Against Torture Signatures
Delivered to Members of Congress
By Sally McMillan

In response to the disturbing report of December 2014 issued by the U.S. Senate Intelligence Committee on the use of torture, in February 2015 the Peace Center adopted a resolution against torture. Almost 700 signatures and 24 group endorsements were collected. This project was initiated at the request of a number of Peace Center members who felt that the voices of local people should be raised against torture, joining other voices and actions taking place around the country. We thank all those who have signed this resolution and all groups that endorsed it.

In February the Resolution Against Torture Committee (Sally McMillan, Mary Pat Day, Mona Durgin and Susan Schuurman, with Coordinating Council member Samia Assed) visited our NM Congressional offices to deliver packets of these signatures and endorsements, with the request that our members of Congress deliver these packets to (1) President Obama to pass on to the Department of Justice and (2) the Senate and House Intelligence Committees requesting congressional action on the Resolution.

Included with the packets is supplemental information including copies of the 3rd and 4th Geneva Convention (ARC Summary) and the UN Convention Against Torture, which have both been ratified by the United States and consequently are laws of our land. Additional information has been included on national and international groups working against torture, published articles, and the book, Guantanamo Diary written by local attorney Nancy Hollander’s client, Mohamedou Slahi, who has been subject to torture and has been and is currently a detainee at Guantanamo Bay for more than 12 years.

We are awaiting responses from Senator Udall, Senator Heinrich, and Representative Grisham.

Sally-Alice Donates David Swanson’s New Book to P&J Library
Is war inevitable? Are some wars necessary? These and other questions are answered in David Swanson’s well-written and well-researched book, War is a Lie. The book is available on loan at the Peace & Justice Center Library.
Powerful Anti-war DVD Documentary
By Don Schrader

The Friendship Village (51 mins. - ideal for classes) is available to borrow. George Mizo was a Native American soldier in the Vietnam War. After his whole platoon was killed except for him, he became totally committed to stopping the war as a soldier within the military. For his strong stand of conscience, he was sent to prison. Years later George founded the Friendship Village in Vietnam as a home for children and adults poisoned by Agent Orange. The U.S. military had sprayed this terrible toxic chemical all over Vietnam, causing many children to be born severely deformed for possibly the next 500 years. George Mizo’s partner in building Friendship Village was the North Vietnamese general whose soldiers killed George’s platoon. U.S. and North Vietnamese veterans, who fought each other, now work together there for reconciliation and healing. George was the first U.S. citizen to receive the Vietnam Medal of Friendship for outstanding humanitarian service. George died of Agent Orange in 2002 at age 57. To borrow this DVD, call Don at (505) 243-0634, any morning 7:30am-8am.

New Art Exhibit in Peace Hall Features Artist Leslie Long
By Eliza M. Schmid, Art Exhibit Coordinator

Our next artist to show her wonderful paintings and painted ceramics will be Leslie Long. She has been an artist and has shown in galleries since the 1990s. She relocated to NM from Bellingham, WA in 2007. She works mostly in oils and does drawings and ceramics for the wall. Her animal image paintings can be described as highly imaginative and sometimes dreamlike and with a good sense of humor. She has worked quite a bit in ceramics creating a series of cat masks and a set of 26 alphabet tiles. Show runs March 2 through end of April. There will not be a reception. To see more of her work, visit etsy.com/shop/AnimalParty. Enjoy!

Nonviolence Webinar Class
By Father John Dear

For the first time ever, I have prepared and filmed a webinar class called “Living Nonviolence,” available from paceebene.org. There will be six video classes starting Monday, April 4. Every Monday for six weeks, you will receive access to a 10-minute video of me discussing nonviolence. You can then send in email questions and comments, and by the end of that week, a journal/reflection on the questions I offer. You can watch the videos and take the class on your own, with friends or your local peace group. To register, visit the website: www.paceebene.org. There you will find outlines and further details about the classes. The price is $75, and registration closes March 30. I hope you will join us for this class on living nonviolence!

With the ongoing violence within and around us, the journey to nonviolence is more important than ever. Thanks so much. God bless you, peace, John Dear

Folk Singer/Songwriter Charlie King to Perform Benefit for the P&J

Charlie King will be performing a benefit concert at the Peace Center, thanks to Dina Afek of Jewish Voice for Peace ABQ. Charlie King is a musical storyteller and political satirist. He has been at the heart of American folk music for half a century. He sings and writes passionately about the extraordinary lives of ordinary people. His songs have been sung by Pete Seeger, Holly Near, Ronnie Gilbert, John McCutcheon, Arlo Guthrie, Peggy Seeger, Chad Mitchell and Judy Small. His political musical influences are the folk music revival of the 1960s, and the protest songs of the Civil Rights and Vietnam War era.

“With encouraging regularity, Charlie King emerges from his self-reflection to remind us of the happy resilience of the human spirit. His message songs vary between the funny and the frightening, but he pulls them off with unvarying taste, musical skill, and charm.” -Billboard

“One of the finest singers and songwriters of our time.” -Pete Seeger

Charlie King will perform at the Peace Center on Thursday, March 10, from 5:30pm to 8:30pm. Suggested donation $15 at the door, includes vegetarian meal. Drinks and desserts will be for sale for additional cost. Concert starts at 6:30pm. For more info, email dina.afek@gmail.com.
